RE: Investigation of Notary Public Lisa Reagor

Dear Bradley Byrd:

The Notary Section of the Executive Office of the Governor has received your complaint of misconduct against Florida Notary Lisa Reagor. This office takes allegations of notary misconduct seriously and relies upon vigilant citizens, like you, to ensure Florida notaries public adhere to the responsibilities and prohibitions of their office. However, the jurisdiction of this office is limited to the laws governing notary conduct, as defined in Chapter 117, Florida Statutes, and we are unable to file criminal charges or make a document null and void.

Based upon your complaint, this office has initiated an investigation of possible violations of Chapter 117, Florida Statutes. Ms. Reagor is now required to provide a sworn written response to each of the matters under investigation by this office. Please be advised that the purpose of this investigation is to aid the Governor in the evaluation of the notary's fitness to serve in public office. At this time, no further correspondence is required. We will contact you if any additional information is needed.

If you have suffered monetary damages due to the alleged notary violation(s), you may wish to file a claim against the notary's surety bond. To obtain the name and address of the bonding company or a copy of the bond, you may contact the Department of State's Notary Commissions and Certifications Section at (850) 245-6975. Additionally, you may want to consult with an attorney to determine any legal options available to you.

Thank you for filing this complaint of reported notary misconduct. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at FL_GOV.Notary@eog.myflorida.com.

Sincerely,

Diedre Leaks
